

Please plan to join us

A Recital in Memory of Elizabeth (Liz) Ronkin
Seventeenth Century Harpsichord Music

Webb Wiggins
Oberlin Conservatory of Music
with Tina Chancey
Co-Founder of Hesperus
and Rosa Lamoreaux, Soprano

St. Mark's Episcopal Church
Capitol Hill (behind the Library of Congress)
Third and 'A' Streets, S.E.
Washington, DC 20003

Saturday, August 12, 2006
3:00 p.m.

From Eastern Market Metro walk about six blocks downhill

From Capitol South Metro walk about six blocks uphill

From all 30 Buses walk about 200 yards

Webb's performance credits include the Amherst Early Music Festival, Apollo's Fire, Atlanta and National Symphony Orchestras, Baltimore and Folger Consorts, Baltimore Chamber and Smithsonian Chamber Orchestras, Hesperus, Philadelphia Classical, Pomerium, Smithsonian Orchestra, and Tempesta di Mare.

Rosa has sung with the Atlanta and Cincinnati Symphony Orchestras, at the Bethlehem and Carmel Bach Festivals, and with the Cathedral Choral Society, Choral Arts Society, Washington Bach Consort, and Washington Chamber Orchestra. Tours include performances in Brazil, Denmark, Germany, France, Italy, and Panama.

This recital is free and open to the public.

maggie.ronkin@gmail.com